

English

There is a shared core in all stages of the curriculum	Shared strands across each Key Stage	Its goes beyond the National Curriculum	Equality and diversity	There are clear pathways for knowledge and developing pedagogy
Key knowledge and ideas are taught through carefully curated texts Key terminology to support the understanding of language - analysis and effect - is consistently taught and used across the key stages	Reading - pupils are explicitly taught the historical, geographical or cultural context of a text Vocabulary - a challenging and wide range of vocabulary is taught explicitly for reading comprehension and writing development Writing - pupils are taught to write imaginatively with technical accuracy	Oracy forms a fundamental part of the English curriculum through all Key stages Pupils are taught how to speak: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • audibly • articulately • confidently • to achieve a range of different purposes • to engage the interest of a range of different audiences Extra-curricular opportunities including theatre trips, clubs and competitions	Literature is carefully and thoughtfully chosen to reflect the diverse Oakgrove population, in respect of culture Pupils will be able to access books where they can identify themselves positively in the role of protagonists Pupils will be guided to select a diverse range of literature which will help raise awareness of other cultures and their own society	Key terminology is mapped and shared across each Key Stage Writing styles and formats are consistent across all Key Stages, taking into account pupils' level of development

Weekly Guided learning hours: EYFS - 5, KS1 - 7, KS2 - 7, KS3 - 3 (+1 for Literacy groups), KS4 - 4 (+1 for intervention groups), KS5 - 5

Created: June 2022
Review date: June 2024