

Worksheet Two

Katie & Josh

Whilst for the most part they get on well, like a lot of couples, Katie and Josh have their fair share of arguments. Often, they're about minor things, like Katie forgetting to put something in the bin or Josh taking too long to reply to a message. These arguments are normally sorted quickly, and never normally last more than a few minutes. However, sometimes, they go on for longer, and Katie and Josh can go a day or two without talking. In the end though, things normally get sorted and they are able to move past it.

Ashley & Taylor

As Ashley is often very busy with her sports commitments, it can be difficult for her to find time to spend with Taylor. Although they get on really well, she doesn't want to sacrifice her sports because not only does she really enjoy them, but she's also making excellent progress in football. She's been told by her coach that it's only a matter of time before she gets scouted, and that she could go on to play professionally in the future. All this can leave Taylor feeling a bit left out and she's starting to grow increasingly frustrated by how little she sees Ashley .

Connor & Sarah

Things have seemed different to Connor recently with Sarah. When they started talking, they both got on really well but there have been a few issues in the past couple of weeks. Sarah has been asking Connor to spend more and more time with her, and then acting strangely when he wants to see his friends. She says that he's spending more time with his friends than with her and that he clearly doesn't care about their relationship. Connor feels bad because he doesn't want Sarah to feel like this, but equally he has been spending most of his free time with her. He's also noticed that she's been asking him lots about Molly, one of his closest friends. He's pretty sure that she's been secretly looking at their messages on his phone and he's worried that Sarah thinks something might be going on between him and Molly, even though they're just friends.
