

Worksheet Three

Katie & Josh

Over the last couple of weeks, Katie and Josh have spent most evenings together. Earlier on today, Josh had asked Katie if she wanted to do something this evening. She was more than happy to see him this evening, and so they agreed to meet after school. However, throughout the day, Katie has felt tired and been given a piece of homework that has to be completed tomorrow. She told Josh this, and asked if they could leave it for tonight, and just see each other tomorrow. Josh was a bit upset by this as he had already planned a nice evening for the two of them. They were both becoming frustrated, and one thing led to another, and now they're not speaking. Whilst Katie knows that they'll most likely make-up in the next few hours, she's worried about how much her and Josh argue. Whilst she really likes Josh, and she knows he really likes her, she doesn't know if their arguments mean that they're not right for each other.

Ashley & Taylor

In the past few days, Ashley has been asked if she will play for the county football team, something which she has always wanted to do. Whilst Taylor is happy for her, she is also worried about their relationship because now Ashley will have to spend even more time training. She knows that it's Ashley's dream but equally doesn't know if she wants to be with somebody who she doesn't get to spend much time with. She recognises that whilst she really likes Ashley, and Ashley likes her too, she may have rushed into the relationship and not really thought about what she was getting herself into. Taylor isn't sure whether to stick with it and support Ashley, or whether to end things and maybe find somebody who can give her more time.

Connor & Sarah

Last night, Sarah confronted Connor about their situation. She said that he's being really nasty by not spending any time with her and that she knows he has been sending inappropriate messages to Molly. Connor can't work out what he's done wrong: he spends so much time already with Sarah and he's certain that he didn't send anything to Molly that would be considered inappropriate. He had tried to talk to her about it but Sarah just kept shouting over him. When he tried to show her his messages to Molly, she snatched the phone out of his hand and threw it at the wall, causing the screen to crack. Connor is pretty sure that this isn't a healthy relationship but he's unsure of what to do, because he doesn't want to upset Sarah anymore than she already is.
